

WNTC JOINS STATE NETWORK

Campus radio station WNTC, jointly operated by students at Clarkson College and Potsdam State Teachers College, joined the Empire State Network this week, it was announced today by Nick Sfikas, station manager.

Originated by WVBR at Cornell university the WRUR at the University of Rochester, the network's membership now includes WRBS at Sampson College, KSLU at St. Lawrence University and the newest addition, WNTC.

Other additions to the station schedule include morning request show called the Breakfast Club, which was inaugurated Tuesday from 7:30 to 8:30 a.m. The station's regular hours have been 9 to 11 p.m. since March 17. The new schedule increases the daily broadcasting time from two to four hours.

Girls Battle Boys to Aid WNTC Record Fund

To spur the drive for phonograph records, Campus radio station WNTC will sponsor an evening of sports on Tuesday, May 18. Scheduled are two softball games between PSTC and Clarkson teams at Snell Field. The first begins at 6 p.m.

Clarkson's fraternities will battle PSTC's sororities in the warm-up game. For the evening's feature the Engineers will pit their skill and might against PSTC's all-stars.

Clarkson's team is being chosen to represent many of the school's organizations, including the fraternities, Neutrals, Woodstock, Holcroft, Fall Island, and Rodgers. The PSTC team is already organized and has played together.

As umpires, Bill Cornell and Pinky Ryan will add color to the battles.
